

SEPTEMBER
MONTH OF ACTION TO RAISE AWARENESS OF CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE

SCREEN  DEBATES

The Women's Support Project in conjunction with the Glasgow Film Theatre presents this popular annual event to mark September as Month of Action to raise awareness about child sexual abuse. This year's event is based on the documentary Aileen: The life and death of a serial killer, Director: Nick Broomfield, Joan Churchill

Aileen Wuornos was executed on 9th October 2002 for killing seven men. Nick Broomfield's film documentary portrays the horrific circumstances that led Aileen to become a highway prostitute and murder seven men. As well as interviews with Aileen, he speaks with estranged family members and former friends who reveal a childhood of violence and abuse, continuing for years. The film provides an insight into the mind of a deeply paranoid yet sympathetic person. Questions are raised about the impact of violence and abuse on women, American justice and the death penalty.

The documentary film will be followed by an audience/panel discussion.

Panel will include award winning director, Nick Broomfield, Julie Bindel, founder member of Justice for Women, trustee of Emma Humphreys Memorial prize, and co-author of a book based on Emma's life and Audrey Stewart of the Young Women's Project, Glasgow.
